

A professional headshot of Fred Perpall, a Black man with short dark hair, smiling. He is wearing a dark suit jacket, a light blue dress shirt, and a blue patterned tie. The background is a plain, light gray.

FRED PERPALL, FAIA

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
THE BECK GROUP

As CEO of The Beck Group, Fred Perpall leads the firm's domestic and international design, planning, real estate consultancy, and construction businesses.

Fred is actively involved in his community. He is Chairman of the Dallas Citizens Council, on the board of directors of Dallas Medical Resource and a Director for Triumph Bancorp (TBK).

Fred is on the Board of Councilors for The Carter Center and is part of the Atlanta Tipoff Club – the group responsible for awarding the Naismith Player of the Year trophy.

In 1996, Fred began his career in design and construction, has been a registered architect since 2003, and was elected to the prestigious American Institute of Architects (AIA) College of Fellows in 2016. He is a part of the AIA Large-Firm Roundtable, and previously served as ex-Chairman of the Urban Land Institute's Urban Plan. He is also a former Director at the Georgia AIA.

He earned a Bachelor of Science in Architecture and a Master of Architecture at the University of Texas at Arlington. He is an alumnus of the 183rd class of Harvard Business School's Advanced Management Program and is a former Americas Fellow at The Baker Institute at Rice University. A native of Nassau, Bahamas, Fred played on the 1994 Bahamian National Basketball Team. Fred and his wife, Abi, live in Dallas with their daughters, Ava and Ali.